“ No matter how bad the situation seemed, Leon could always make you smile or laugh. He taught me alot about cars and life. I will always Love him for treating me and my kids and Jina as good as his own boys and grandkids. I have alot of Precious Memories that are priceless. Wish time hadn't gotten away from us.

So sorry to hear about my precious cousin. We haven't spent a lot of time together in our grown up years but would see him at funerals usually. Love him and his family. Our moms are sisters and we all grew up about the same. Life was different back then. May there be peace and strength with his family in the coming days. We will see u again Spug. 🙏🏻
