“ If Aunt Lilly had a fault, I never seen it in my 79 years. She was loved by all. I wish there was adequate words to describe just how precious and caring she was. She was a Christian Lady. She and my uncle Arthur were great parents and raised their son right. Arthur Junior followed his father footprints and enlisted in the Marines, serving his country with pride. Aunt Lilly, Shirley and I loved you. Walk them streets of gold, you deserve it.
