“ I remember her smile and sense of humor. Her love for her family was always so evident. I loved her as she always made me feel like part of that family she loved so deeply. How amazing her home coming party must have been. We will see them all again some glorious day. Until then

“ My Aunt Linda last visit to Michigan a couple summers ago; she wanted to visit Mackinaw Island, so we did! She wanted to see the Sand Dunes of Lake Michigan so we went to Sleeping Bear National Lakeshore. Ramey Stevens pushed her to the top of the viewing platform in a wheel chair as she could not walk the distance. She wanted to visit the Christmas store at Bronners in Frankenmuth, so we did. She enjoyed her travels but also relaxed and enjoyed our evening chats on the deck with a fire and of course a slow and easy boat ride. It was a visit I will always remember of our time together.

“ First time I meet Linda she reminded me of someone. We keep talking and I all most started crying. She reminded me of my mom. Very strong independent women. She was always supper nice to me. She would say I looked to young to be Tyler’s mom or I did a great job raising him. We will miss you but know you are in a much better place. Praying for the family
