“ My memory of you Lisa is a little girl of five years old. You were shy and sweet. I remember us working together at Ribinson. You and Clayton were dating. Everytime his name was mention you lit up like a Christmas tree. Your smile was contagious and I know that you are smiling now. We know you are with our God pain free and spreading your wings to comfort your family. May God be with your family. May they find comfort knowing that you are in his presence watching over them. Amen

“ I have alot of memories but the ones that I'll never forget are the times I'd be upset having a bad day, Lisa and I would go to the bathroom at work and She would hold my hands and pray outloud with such humbleness Asking God to Touch Me, that I had no doubt God would hear and answer. Then she'd hug me and tell me she loved me. She was a Dear friend I'll never forget...
