“ Since moving down here permanently Gator and Miss Ann have welcomed us into their family with open arms. I will miss Gators vibrant energy and trying to teach me to speak Cherokee, to no avail I might add. We miss him but know his spirit is now soaring freely once more. Miss Ann we will be here for you and share your pain. Much Love always, Kim & Lamey

I have to give my friend Gator ' much praise for being such a kind humanitarian , always happy always thoughtful and kind to others and to animals. He did a lot for his community and the people in it. I came to know him very well , not just by serving him at Wal Mart but also becoming connected when we were in the Manor , he was 2 doors down from me. I would stop and visit him 3 or 4 times a day every day each time passing his room. I loved hearing his storys , he was a great story teller, filled with truth, he was not afraid to tell the truth and /or show his true feelings. He prayed for me every day and I prayed for him every day , and I never stopped praying, asking GOD every nite to please restore his left side. He loved Ann very much, she was the apple o his eye. I am truely going to miss this wonderful man .My prayers are with An and his family whom he talked about and missed very much especailly his mother, May GOD console you Ann in your hours of need' I love you.
