“ Rest in peace Jean, you are so deserving of it, and now you can go stroll over heaven with J.D. and Riley, I can picture in my mind that reunion, the smiles on your faces. Thank you for touching my life, I was blessed to have a friend and Sister-in-law all rolled into one. We shared so many good times, acting silly, going to yard sales, or Walmart, cooking or going out to eat, riding around on the golf carts or the pontoon. We so much enjoyed being at Fishers Landing on the week-ends with you all and have so many special memories . We love you.

“ Growing up and spending a lot of time at my Aunt Jeans home you never doubted that you were loved. Jean was my second mom and I was so thankful that I was able to spend some quality time with her as I grew older. I will miss singing Patsy Cline with her and knowing that if I ever needed a hug or a shoulder I could always go to her. I love and adore her so much and will miss her tremendously.

I just read about Jean passing. I remember her when I was much younger and she was a young mother living just over the hill from J.D's family. She was always a happy and pleasant person. I am so sorry for the families pain.
