“ I will always remember Marvin and Marie as the best neighbors anyone could have. I loved going to their home. They set a Christian example for myself and sisters. I played the piano for them to sing and traveled to many area churches during the 1960's. Marie is home now and watching over us. Love and prayers to Frazier and Linda.

“ Marvin and Marie took me to church nearly every Sun. She was my Sunday School teacher and a great example for me as a young Christian. As I got older she continued to influence my life, she was right there when I became the Sunday School teacher! My husband and I ate many a Sunday dinner at their house. Love you Marie!!

My sister is now where we all want to go some day. She prepared her soul for this day from the time she was 12 years old. My sister, I will see you soon as we so often talked about.
