

Mary Duanne Jones-Baker

September 28, 1932 - June 5, 2016

Mary Duanne Jones-Baker, 83, of Parsons, entered eternal rest from Tri County Healthcare, Adamsville, on June 5th after a lengthy illness with Alzheimer's. Mrs. Jones-Baker, a homemaker, was born in Selmer, Tennessee on September 28th, 1932 to her parents Leonard and Jewel (Murray)Henson. Mrs. Jones-Baker was preceded in death by her husband Warren Lee Jones in 1983.

Duanne was a devout Christian woman who had a passion and love for her Lord, her family and friends. The welcome mat was always present for anyone who stopped by to say hello. Iced tea or coffee was always at the standby for the frequent visitors in her home.

She is survived by her husband Jordan Baker of Parsons, and her sons, Phillip (Maureen) Jones, Spokane, Washington; David (Jo Ann) Jones, Austin, Texas; and Bob (Missy) Jones, of Decaturville, TN. In addition to her sons, other survivors include two sisters Catherine (John) Sheppard of Collierville, Tn. and Barbara (Tom) Alger of Contonement, FL., seven grandchildren, Nicole (Brian) Guin, Melissa (Jason) Watson, Colby (Christina) Jones, Jordan Jones, John Jones, Lauren Jones, and Clayton (April) Edgin, She is also survived by 15 great-grandchildren, Michual, Jonathan, Anna, Abigail, Jack Henry, Mary Clare, Leah Grace, Lane, Gracie, Jayden, Emmitt, Kaylee, Lillie, Annzley, and Everett, all of whom had a special place in her heart.

The family will receive friends June 7th from 10am until 9pm at Reed's

Chapel. The funeral service will be held at 11am, June 8th from Reed's Chapel in Decaturville, and will be conducted by Reverend James Chumley, Phillip Jones, David Jones, with music provided Elaine Holley Jones. Mrs. Jones-Baker will be interred at the Trinity Assembly of God Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate donations to The Pat Summit Foundation at www.patsummitt.org.

“ Went to work with Duanne's husband, Warren Lee, in February 1973 -- he was wonderful to me, treated me like a daughter. Then I became acquainted with Duanne -- and we became friends immediately. For the next 11 years, we enjoyed many social occasions together around the holidays, etc. They were so good to me & my family and to this day, I still 'quote' Mr. Jones. Duanne even babysat my daughter, Sarah, for a while. I am sad that she has left this world .... but I know that she has now greeted our savior, Jesus Christ and is rejoicing with Warren Lee in the portals of glory! !! My sincere sympathy to all the family ....
