

Myra Lykken

January 11, 1969 - February 10, 2018

Myra Jo Dickson Lykken, age 49, of Lexington started her eternal life on Saturday, February 10, 2018 at her home in Lexington. She passed away peacefully in her sleep.

A woman of strong faith and service, Myra loved her community and her church. Both in her professional and in private life, she spent her energy helping others oftentimes while suffering from illness herself. In her role of case manager with the Tennessee Department of Human Services, she touched the lives of many while helping them during their time of need. She graduated from the University of Tennessee at Martin with a bachelor's degree.

In her private life, she devoted her time to her family, friends and her church community. She served as an elder at First Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Lexington and also served on the board of the Senior Citizens Center. Her sweet spirit and natural smile will be remembered by her many friends and her family.

Her motto was to "Do what is right and do what is good...be kind to others."

The world could use more kind and gentle people like her.

A woman of simple pleasures, she enjoyed traveling in the United States, photography, her pets, and watching the University of Tennessee football games. At home, she was surrounded by her many "fur babies" that kept her company and brought her hours of joy. Many in the community may remember when the Lexington Fire department offered their assistance and ladder when her parrot flew away. She climbed that ladder to reach her feathered friend just as she went to great lengths to help her human friends.

She is survived by her husband, Terrell Lykken; her parents, Mike and Martha Jo Howard Dickson of Lexington; a sister; Michelle Dickson (David) Baker of Haymarket, Virginia, a niece; Michaela Baker of Nashville, Tennessee; two nephews; Drew (Cynthia) Baker of Lexington and Grant Baker of Haymarket, Virginia, her mother-in-law; Glenda Gail Lykken of Darden and a sister-in-law Nana Leah Lykken Roberts. Funeral services will be Monday, February 12 at 3 PM at Reeds Chapel. Interment to follow in the Mt. Gilead Cumberland Presbyterian Church on in the Shady Hill-Reagan Community near the family's farm. Visitation will be Sunday 2 PM-9 PM and Monday 9 AM until the 3 PM service.

“ She was always so nice and sweet to everyone she met. I've known her since high school and she was full of energy and the abundance of niceness was always infectious no one could stay sad around her because she made everyone feel better.

I am praying for you all and I'm so sorry that I can't be there just to hug and kiss you. I love you and I am praying that GOD gives you strength on today and also to give you peace, which passes all understanding...

John 14 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

“ My heart is broken to hear of Myra's passing. May God be with the spouse, Michelle, Martha and Mike. I pray he will reach down and touch you at this time of sadness. I remember the days of girl scouts with Michelle and Myra, school years with both also. God bless you all and if I can do anything please reach out. Love you all.

“ *My very best friend. We stood by each other thru all our ups and downs. My childhood friend taking turns going to each other's houses spending the night, watching videos, eating pizza, laughing and talking till all hours of the night. Calling on the phone constantly, riding the 4 wheeler up to her grandparents house, jumping on the trampoline going to the movies and to play video games at Astro world and lots more things would take all night to list.
She was my friend, my best friend, my sister, I'm lost and heartbroken and I will miss her so much. Heaven is a much sweeter place tonight because of her sweet soul. Fly high my friend
