“ It has been 4 years. I think of you often and still can't believe you are gone. I miss you so much but I know in my heart it would only be selfish of us to want you back. The pain you had to endure was more than anyone should have to live with. I close my eyes now and can see you healthy, happy and looking over all of us. Until we see each other again. Love you and miss you dearly. Take care of Nanny and Papa for us.

“ I am one of his nieces Ashley Alonso (Doyle) which most of y'all know me as my uncle Dale was an amazing, strongest man that I know even through threw the years his health wasn't good and the pain I watched him going threw years after years I never heard him complain of the pain he was in!!:(only family and close friends knew he wasn't one to put his problems out to everyone) in the past three years he lost both of his feet but yet that didn't put him down nor in a wheelchair he taught his self how to walk with out them which taught me never to give up!!! Last week two months he was in server pain with both hands were they to his left last Thursday and soon after was going to take his right one soon until his The Father called him Home which in my eyes was a Blessing he isn't in pain any longer (Thank You Father)!!:) He may not be here on earth with us but he is in heaven watching down over his family and all of his friends!!! May I do say as he would don't be sad for me be Happy and Party on as we would if I was there with y'all!!!! Never be forgotten always living in my heart until we meet again fly high high uncle Dale!!; U meant the World to me and my children Morgan Smith, Logan Doyle, Ellee Alonso!! We love u!!! I feel iam so close to you right now and so much I would love to tell u I just don't want to post and stop writing but I know that you knew what you meant to us!!!!

“ Give 'em hell Myron Dale!!!! That's what we used to say when he'd coming barreling down that gravel road we lived on and sliding that badass Chevelle into our driveway! I was fortunate enough to have my signature on his bedroom walls. I thought that was so cool how so many of Dales friends had written ask over his walls on saddle club loop. Those where the days! So sorry to hear of his passing. Many prayers to his family and friends. R.I.P. MYRON DALE!

“ Dale was a good friend of mine many years ago. He was also friends with my brother, John Fly. My name is Elizabeth Fly Gross. I just recently found some old letters he had written me when he had gone off to work a long time ago. Had me wondering about him. Had seen and heard from him a few times through the years. Had no idea he was so sick! We had a lot of fun over 30 years ago. I took many rides in the red and black Chevelle! Glad I'm still alive to tell about it! We were good friends then. This is so sad and breaks my heart. I am so, so sorry for your loss. May God comfort you and carry through this very difficult time. I will always have fond memories of him.
