“ I am so sad to learn of Norma's passing. We went to school together from the 1st grade at Weona to graduation at MTHS. She was such a sweet person and so loved by everyone, I am so glad I had the opportunity to visit with her again last summer at our class reunion and take a trip down memory lane. I pray that God will envelop your family in his arms as you mourn the passing of this wonderful woman.

“ Praying for peace and comfort for Gary and his girls and the entire family, and the hosts of friends that are left behind. She will be missed. She gained her Heavenly wings but will still watch over us. RIP my dear friend and may your words of wisdom and always abiding love of Christ remain in our hearts until we meet again. I'm going to miss you and your daily uplifting posts.

*My Sweet "Sister"....
I love you Norma....
We shared our childhood together....
We were a little mischievous, at times, but that's the way little girls are supposed to be....Sort of like two little kittens, or little puppies playing .
We played with our Dolls,
"sewed" clothes for them....lol.
You Dad, my Uncle George used to take us (our mothers are Sistersf) or Ice Cream Cones, on his way to the "Cotton Gin."
When our Mothers & Fathers would go to Memphis, TN for shopping, You and I sat in the back seat, of the Car...."Singing Elvis Presley Songs." ...lol.
My Dad said to us;
"Dont plan on
having "Singing Careers" Girls !! You had better marry Rich Men, because I'm telling you right now, you won't ever make it in The Music Industry , "Singing."...Then everyone would laugh !! I miss you so much already, just knowing I cannot call you. You are in Heaven, where I will meet you soon.....We were "Sisters" not Cousins." 🙄♀️👧♀️
I think about you every day, all of the time....
My heart is so broken, it hurts....and it hurts to breathe...it feels as if its very bruised....I love you Sweetheart, Im sending bunches of Hugs.....
If only I could hear your Sweet voice, just one more time.....I will see you soon, I'm sure....*

“ Dearest Gary and Girls...I am so very sorry to learn of Norma's untimely death. I know your hearts are broken and we who loved and knew her well, share in your sorrow. I am praying for you all in this most difficult time that God will comfort your hearts. I pray that you will find hope and courage and strength in the days ahead for this terrible journey of grief. Our greatest hope and our faith teaches us that we will see our loved ones again and I pray that this too, will comfort your hearts. Sending you all love and my condolences at this time.
