“ One of my favorite memories of Pam was her wedding to David and being a young child thinking how beautiful she was. Like a princess and I imagined me looking like her on my wedding day some day. Ironic that she passed on my and Mike's anniversary. She always had a smile for everyone and I never heard her say one mean thing in all the time I was around her. She was a true blue friend as well as cousin and always there for you no matter what. Any time there was a family event she made it there. Some how some way you could always count on her being there. Heaven gained one more beautiful soul. I know her precious parents were waiting on the banks of the Jordan river for her.
