“ Pat was the Receptionist for WBBJ-TV for several years and she was always very friendly and outgoing. When her grandson, Walker was born you couldn't wipe that smile off her face even if you tried and like all grandparents there was always plenty of pictures. When Walker came by the station she lit up like a Christmas tree, even though she had probably seen him just a few hours before. Pat made many friends during her time here and continued to keep in contact with a lot of the employees that left via facebook. She came by the station this past summer and as always very happy and smiling. Pat was witty and kind hearted. She would cook Thanksgiving dinner for employees at the station and even invited employees to her home for Thanksgiving with her family. We will miss her and we extend our deepest sympathy and prayers to her family and pray that the peace of God will comfort them in their time of loss.

“ I am so sorry for your loss.

Pat and I were friends for a long time. We laughed, we cried, we shared happy memories and sad memories, but most importantly, we shared a friendship beyond words, thoughts, emotions or expressions.

She was my confidant in all things past and present.

Knowing that she is no longer suffering and that she is heaven with our heavenly Father is the comfort and peace that I have with leaving her behind.

May God continue to watch over and bless every one of you. The road may be long, but the love you had for you mother is forever.

*Love and blessings to all of you
