“ I will miss you sis. I still laugh at the photo where we put your prosthetic leg on the bike rack when you rode to Oak Mountain with us. I'll treasure the visits I had with you.

“ I don't one specific memory of Ms Patty. For the short time I have known her I came to love and respect her. I was sent to her because it was said she needed me to help her day to day. Not so. Turns out I needed Ms Patty. She was so wise and didn't hesitate to let me know when I was being an idiot. I will miss her dearly and will always cherish the time I had with her. Fly high Ms Patty. I love you!
