“ She was a sweet lady she loved everyone. She will be missed dearly. We were neighbors growing up and she will never be forgotten.

Peggy we had so many good times together and getting each other out of trouble!! We could talk about anything and knew it wouldn't go any further. You were best friends when Pam was little. You were always there. I will see you in HEAVEN and there will be an eternity to be friends. I will never forget you. And all the cokes we drank at Robert's store. Wish I could be there.
