“ I remember Neil as always happy. He had a joyful spirit and a smile that always made me feel happy. I'll remember his laugh forever. That deep chuckle that you heard over all others. You knew Neil was in the house before you seen him. Prayers for you all. Love Gina

“ So very sorry to hear of Neal's passing. I remember going to Hays MKT down the hill from my house when I wax a kid, maybe 11-12 yr old and when Neal and family were running the store.

Later had fond memories of Neal and I umpiring high school baseball games together. He was a good man with an easy disposition and easy to get along with!

Prayers for Carol and all of the entire family.....know he will be missed greatly by all!
