“ For Prentice Page: Loving and dearly-loved cousin, Page Family classic, God and family and country-loving man...Memories of you will continue to bless our hearts and minds and souls. You have caused us to praise and thank our all mighty, awesome God and Heavenly Father. We so look forward to meeting you again on “the other side”, where we’ll never grow old and from where there will be no parting.

Lovingly, Paula Page Bensinger

We were 9 months apart in age. Grew up together, we like brothers. My 1st cousin and longest friend. Nothing we could not share. A Christian man who loved Jesus, his Church and other people. I will miss him terribly, but am content he is with Jesus.
