“ First, I want to say thank you to everyone who came out to pay their respects, and/or sent flowers and love virtually...you all showed how beautiful my baby sister was inside and out, and how many lives she touched. Second I want to say to my mom, her other siblings, her dad and my nieces... that even though I'm grieving as well, I am here and always will be, and anything any of you need I'll go to the moon and back to get it. And lastly to Rebecca... losing you in any capacity would've been the hardest thing I'll ever do, but losing you like this has broken us. I take comfort in knowing you are in heaven and we have the most beautiful guardian angel anyone could ever ask for now, but I still want you here, I want to hear your laugh and see your smile. I loved watching you with your girls, because I was and still am so very proud of the woman you became. Your loss has forever changed me, but knowing you and having you for a sister was the blessing of a lifetime. I love you little sis, Mike and I will cherish the friendship we had and the love you showed to everyone you came in contact with. It seems that you made more of an impact than I ever could've imagined and your loss is being felt from almost everywhere in the country.

Fly high kiddo, we love you and will always keep your memory alive for your girls. RIP Bec, love always and forever.... your sister 🥹❤️
