“ Gina and I met at the Players Brown Derby in the late 80s in Warren Ohio where we worked together. I was in the delivery room when Steven was born and remembered we were both surprised by the delivery process because we were terrible students in the birthing classes. Gina loved life and had a beautiful smile. She was so proud of her boys and the men they had become. There was always jokes and laughter when Gina was around. She will be dearly missed.
