“ I sure did love Mr. X! I met him at the princess Theatre when I was in elementary school. He would stand at the front of the theater on the right side, and if we talked, he shine the flashlight on us. Since I was a social butterfly, I got the light shined on me a lot! I ran into him at the gas station a few years ago. I was so delighted to be able to see him after so many years. I talked with him and told him who I was and he said oh I remember you used to talk at the at the show a lot!! I said yes, sir that would be me! We had such a nice conversation at the gas pump. Blessings and comfort to your family.

“ I went into Northcliff one day and Mr Rex says you look familiar I know You from somewhere. And I said Yes Sir, You know My Daughter and My Dad dealt with You alot at the Bank, Mr Dave from Western Sizzlin. He said yes he did, I remember him and We chatted about Dad and before I knew it that chat was 30 minutes or so and he then proceeded to ask Me if I claimed my Daughter and I said oh yes sometimes. I couldnt believe that he remembered Dad from that long ago but he sure did. After that if i saw Mr Rex he would always holler at Me whenever I went into Northcliff to see Mom. You never forget some People that God puts in your path and Mr Rex was one of those people. Prayers for his family and friends, He was one of a kind.
