

Richard R. Rushing

December 29, 1919 - April 11, 2019

Richard R. Rushing, age 99, passed away on Thursday, April 11, 2019 in Lexington. Mr. Rushing was a World War II Air Force Veteran, a University of Tennessee graduate, a successful farmer, and businessman. He was a member of New Hope Methodist Church where he was a member of the Bobby Snider Sunday School Class. He was a kind and generous friend to many. Richard was a strong supporter of education for all youth. He as an author of several children's books that he loved to share with children. He was blessed with 99 years of life and enjoyed every one of them. His strong work ethic and physical ability, plus his faith in God carried him through. He is survived by two nephews, Dr. Van Rushing & wife Patsy & their children, Dalton Rushing (Stacy), Justine Rushing, Spencer Rushing, and Molly Rushing, and Richard Rushing, and a cousin, Bruce Dyer & family. He was preceded in death by his parents, George W. and Margaret Jane Rushing, a brother, Dalton Rushing, and a sister, Mary E. Rushing. Funeral services will be on Saturday, April 13 at 11AM at New Hope Methodist Church with burial to follow in New Hope Cemetery. Visitation will be on Saturday from 10AM until service. All visitation will be held at New Hope Methodist Church. Reed's Chapel in Lexington is in charge of all arrangements.

Tribute Wall

DA

“ Used to haul square bales of hay with Mr Rushing.He was a good boss and mentor of mine that helped me get my life in order.You will be missed Sir .Rest in Peace

Danny - April 13, 2019 at 11:12 AM

AG

“ Allison Garrett lit a candle in memory of Richard R. Rushing

Allison Garrett - April 12, 2019 at 10:03 PM

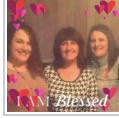

RR

“ I have known Mr. Rushing since 1980. My father and I worked on his farm equipment for many years. I heard many story about Mr. Rushing live. He was a treasure to know. He enjoyed life.

Randall Roberts

Randall Roberts - April 12, 2019 at 07:43 PM

I am so thankful for every time I had with Mr.Richard! My family and I are going to miss him but thankful he is in heaven and look forward to being with him there forever! I am sure my son welcomed him with a great big Smile!

Terrye Gossett - April 12, 2019 at 08:26 PM