May your sorrow be softened by caring friends and the love that you and Ricky had for each other. And may the healing power of memory visit you in your time of need. We know in our heart you will get through this just knowing what Heaven has gained, I can see Ricky now smiling down at you and the kids. We always loved having you over and remember Ricky and his stories. We love you dear friend and remember you have a special Angel watching over you. Our Love to you all.
