“ Such a loss to our family and every person that had the privilege of knowing Rodney. His big smile and quick wit will be missed more than we can express. Though our hearts are heavy we trust our faithful God and know that heaven will sparkle just a little brighter with his presence. Your loss has made us realize just how much we loved you and miss you. It is true that you really don't know how much you love someone until you no longer have them in your life. God, he's a handful and will require your patience, but we know you are up to the task! Take care of our baby until we meet again.

*Love you forever and ever, Amen
Your Uncle Larry and Aunt Nainy*

“ The 1st time I was really around Rodney for any length of time was one Thanksgiving at Denny & Joans home. Rodney didn't say a lot to me and more than once it seemed to me that he was quietly observing me....trying to figure out if I was good enough for his Uncle Johnny. When we got ready to leave, Rodney gave me a hug & said, "Welcome to the family" with that big smile of his & I knew I had his approval! Such a kind spirit, a great personality, & always a jokester! Love you Rodney! We'll be seeing ya!
