“ We had the pleasure of meeting Rowlf "Junior" a few years back at his brothers house and also had the pleasure of meeting his sister Leann. What a very loving family. We are very sorry for your loss.

“ Rowlf, was a great friend, a loving person, and most of all he loved life. He and I shared so many stories together, and I can tell each and everyone of you he loved his family. They were all so special to him. I have felt sad for the past 9 or so years that he has just fought to continue to be his happy loving self and hide all his pain. I don't believe he ever wanted people to know just how sick he really was. He was a fighter.....fighting for life. He was great at his job and taught so many the skills needed to succeed in his industry.

I will miss him calling me sunshine but I do know that he is in Heaven with our good Lord and at peace.

I send my condolences to LeAnn, Josh, Dylan his grandchildren and the rest of the family. We will continue to pray for peace and comfort during this difficult time.

Think good thoughts and keep smiling he would not want it any other way.

*Love Always,
