“ I had recently been thinking of sister Watkins more often!! She was such a precious lady!! My favorite and most special memory was of her at church worshipping and praising God!! She would lift up her hands and shout!! What a blessing this was to me!! Also I will never forget her testimony at Cedar Grove Baptist Church and she obeyed God and was saved that night of August the 7th on a Sunday night in revival in 1978!! Loved her so much! Love you all and heartfelt sympathy for all of the family!!
