

Shelton Hanson Robinson

January 13, 1943 - December 15, 2025

Shelton Robinson, age 82, passed away on Monday, December 15, 2025 in Jackson. Shelton battled metastatic melanoma for almost 5 years. While the treatments he received prevented the cancer from spreading, it lowered his immune system allowing a urinary tract infection to take his life. Shelton was born on January 13, 1943, in Memphis, Tennessee, to Nettie Hanson Robinson and Richard Shelton Robinson, both of whom have predeceased him. He attended White Station High School in Memphis and Memphis State University (now University of Memphis). Shelton's profession career included Director of Photography at WKNO, Channel 10; News Photographer and Writer at WREC, Channel 3; Director of Public Relations at Memphis Housing Authority; and Owner and President of Photoplace, Photografx and AVgrafx businesses (1973-2015). On a personal level, first and foremost Shelton loved his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and had a strong desire for everyone he came in contact with to know Him also. He taught Sunday School from the age 17 until he drew his last breath. Shelton loved his family and his church. Shelton enjoyed fishing and golf, was an avid reader, reading 2 books a week. He was a poet and short story writer and wrote two novels but was never published. Shelton leaves his wife of almost 50 years, Elaine Bloom Robinson, his daughters, Sherry Ann Robinson, Sharon Leigh Wilson (Eddie) and three grandchildren, Donald W. Moore, Amanda Wilson and Elizabeth (Liz) Glaze. Also, he leaves great-grandchildren, Nevaeh Radach, Teagan Glaze, Jordon Moore, Bryant Moore and Leiland Moore and one great-great grandchild, Brodie Moore. Funeral services will be on Saturday, December 20 at 1:30PM at First Baptist Church in Lexington with burial to follow in Lexington Cemetery. Visitation will be on Friday from 2PM-4PM and Saturday from 12:30PM until service. All visitation will be held at First Baptist Church.
