“ Oh how I remember how he liked to talk about anything in class. The boys would get him to talk so we wouldn’t have to work that day. I had him in 7th and 8th grade. He will be missed by many. Prayers for the family.

“ Mr. Stenson Washburn was a great teacher, teller of jokes, could plan a prom on graph paper better than anyone, was full of irony and dry humor, was my teacher, and after I too began teaching at Westover...was my friend. I am sure he is back with the love of his life Judy waiting on the rest of us.....asking God why He allowed cats. He will be missed. Praying for your family that God will heal your broken hearts.

“ I had Stenson (always “Mr” Washburn in my mind) his second year of teaching for the 6th grade. I remember him fondly in and out of the classroom. Just so happens while he was my teacher he was also my next door neighbor. We played a lot of basketball in the backyard. He was always my friend. A fine teacher and a fine gentleman.
