“ My condolences to this entire family. This young man started my training on the machines back in the 70's while he was employed at Delavan. I was there when he gave his notice to go into business for himself. He was a fine person. Sorry to find him here. I don't know his situation, but the Lord does. Rest in peace old friend.

“ Favorite memories are when Daddy would go to his bedroom, shut the door, play his guitar & sing. I would love to walk past the door and stand & listen. It was almost like an escape for him. A man who had so much responsibilities. - jenny (grateful daughter)
