“ To all of the family, Shirley and I extended our deepest sympathies. Good picture of a fantastic lady. I am a year older than Susan, we went to school together, I still remember what a good basketball player she was and all of our classmates liked her. She will be missed.

“ Susan was so beautiful inside and out. One of the most loving people I had met. She welcomed me into the family like she had known me for years. She will be missed by so many. Go rest high on that Mountain.... Robin Blankenship

Aunt Susan was a wonderful person. I used to wish I was her other son. Awesome Christian woman. Loved her so much as most people did. Her laughter was contagious and loud..she will be missed but she has been healed and walking with the lord and his angels
