“ *Ted Waylon,
I call you by both of these names because in my lifetime and treasured friendship with you, I have called you both. Throughout high school, and a little beyond, I called you Waylon; when I got off active duty and returned to Lexington and worked at Moose Lodge #2091, I was informed that you preferred Ted, so from that moment on I referred to you as Ted. You, Janice and I had some good times back then, you were my go to man when I needed help at the Moose Lodge and I don't know what I would have done without you and Eddie Cannon, my no. 2 go to man. I haven't seen you these past few years, but I thought of you and Janice very often and always considered the two of you dear friends; distance does not separate friendship. Rest easy good fellow, I shall miss you very much.*

*Janice,
You have my heartfelt sympathy; you know how much I thought of Ted. I wish I had seen him more through the years. I plan to spend a lot more time in Lexington following my retirement July 31, but now there will be an impossible to fill void when I start to see old friends.
Be strong and take care,
Bob Garrison*

Janice and family, so sorry for Ted's passing, his mother and my mother were first cousins. Ruthie loved her children very much, we worked together and she would speak of them and was proud of them. Carolyn & Harry
