“ I met Mrs. Coffman about a year ago. She was the most sweetest lady I know. She was always kind to me and watching her working her puzzle book, still in her right mind. She would always tell me she love me, and that made my day. I will truly miss her presence at oak haven. Thanks for sharing her with us. Prayers for the family.

“ Virginia was the most loving woman. When I would bring my granddaughter to visit at Oak Haven she would put her in her lap and roll her around saying “I love you” in the sweetest manner. I could tell she meant it ❤️ I have the video and will cherish it.

“ So sorry for your loss. My mother, Martha Blankenship, stayed at Oak Haven almost three months last year. Mrs. Virginia knew exactly who she was. She was so sweet each time I visited. She was working her books and wheeling in her chair. I am so glad she made it to 100.
