I love this picture of my Aunt Delle (Wannie), my mom, and me in 2013. Aunt Delle was always smiling! She smiled and laughed all through my growing up years, when she took my brother and me camping, boating, and for sleepovers. She was so kind and loving. We will miss her dearly and never, ever forget all the wonderful memories she helped us create.

“ There are people God gives us to inspire and support us in this life. Wannie was one of those people for me. We had more fun and cried more tears together than anyone will ever know. We shared our pride in our children and disappointments when things did not go the way we felt they should. But most of all we shared a love for Mississippi and our youth. Anne you know how very much your Mother Loved you so do I. With Love and Prayers, Pat Bailey
