

Dr. William Gene Cooper

July 26, 1944 - August 16, 2015

Dr. William Gene Cooper, age 71, of Saltillo passed away Sunday August 17, 2015 in Lexington. He was a retired Physician. He is survived by his former wife; Leialohaleimakamai Cooper of Saltillo, 2 sons; Kalani Cooper of Savannah and Kaimi Cooper of Selmer, a daughter; Heather Christian Scholz of California, his mother; Betty Viola Hooker of Arizona, 2 sisters; Connie Samson and Janelle Cooper of Arizona, and 3 grandchildren. Dr. Cooper had expressed his wishes for cremation prior to his passing.

Reeds Chapel

968-3643

Tribute Wall

AS

“ Angie Scott lit a candle in memory of Dr. William Gene Cooper

Angie Scott - August 18, 2015 at 11:02 AM

DW

You were a very good friend and neighbor whom I will miss greatly. No more pain buddy, rest in peace.

David Willis - August 18, 2015 at 01:30 PM

LF

Doc, your were a mentor and a great friend for many years. I know you are ripping through the gates in a Porsche 918 (or at least a 911).

Laird Forrest - October 05, 2015 at 09:25 AM