“ Dear Family,

So sorry to hear the news of the loss of your precious William. Now that your Labor of Love is complete may God begin now to heal your hearts as you travel on a grief journey for a while. You all provided everything to bring the very best care out there right up to the very last moment. Good news: Jesus Knows and Jesus care about what you all are going through. Since God is the God of ALL COMFORTS it appears He will provide everything you need for a grief journey. Someone wrote, "Healing comes through story." The way through is to share the great stories of life and tell them as many times as you choose to. May the Lord be gracious unto you and may His face shine upon you and may He be gracious unto you.
